BEST FRIENDS

Hello! I'm Victoria. Today, I want to tell you something about a friend of mine, Maria. Maria was my best friend; she was 64 years old. She died when I was 50, and I remember her all the time because she was really special to me. Maria lived in a faraway town. When I wanted to visit her, I had to drive for five hours. She lived pretty close to the beach, so sometimes we went to the beach and spent some time sitting on the sand talking about the good old times. Maria and I went to the same school; we played, jumped, ran, studied, and did many things together during our youth. Maria was really smart, she liked to study a lot, but she had some problems to learn English. I helped Maria to learn English even though I was not an expert on teaching it. I didn't understand mathematics, but Maria taught me. We studied every weekend. We shared our knowledge and we grew up helping each other. Today I'm in Australia. I'm old now but I have great memories of my best friend Maria.
